

ART MATERIAL SWAP

In celebration of Scavenger Deities, an exhibition constructed from excess materials and studio waste from VisArts, please join VisArts for its first Art Material Swap event!

For this solo exhibition, artist Rachel Schmidt extends her practice to harvest and reuse waste from cultural organizations to construct complex works of art in this expansive, complex, multi-media installation in the True F. Luck Gallery on view from September 8 through October 22, 2023.

Scavenger Deities depicts and pays homage to animal spirits as purveyors of wisdom, and the magic of reuse to regenerate.

Join us at VisArts in supporting all scavengers as we move away from needless consumption and share what is bountiful among us.

Let's give away and recirculate our piles to let others work their magical renewal on them. This is a chance to clear out the cluttered spaces of your studio and pass on materials to others.
